Leadership and Enrichment Programs During the School Year

Neumann-Goretti Leadership Initiative

Contact: Rory Sweeney (rsweeney@neumanngorettihs.org)

Description of Program: Neumann-Goretti has worked with partners in higher education, the corporate sector, leadership experts, and community based organizations to develop a leadership program called N-G Leads. N-G Leads uses a student centered approach for leadership development and training. The program will be delivered in one hour modules after school on Bell 5 days when school dismisses at 1:25 PM. We are expecting to have between 40 and 60 students that participate in the program.

Science Olympiad

Contacts: Mr. Jack Convery
(jconvery@neumanngorettihs.org) and Mr.
Rory Sweeney
(rsweeney@neumanngorettihs.org)

Description of Program: Science Olympiad is a team competition in which students compete in 23 events pertaining to various scientific disciplines, including earth science, biology, chemistry, physics, and engineering. Science Olympiad provides terrific learning opportunities for students interested in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics.

#RealTalkTobacco

Contact: Tiffany Rodriguez, Advocacy Institute
Coordinator, Health Promotion Council

tiffrodriguez@phmc.org

Description of Program: #RealTalkTobacco (#RTT) is a youth engagement and advocacy program of the Advocacy Institute focusing on youth tobacco prevention. #RTT is designed to address issues that impact our health and social justice. Participants have an opportunity to learn about how tobacco impacts their community including health impacts of tobacco use, the impact of advertisements, and how tobacco companies have historically and presently target youth. Graduates of this program earn a generous stipend!

South Philadelphia Prevention Coalition (SPPC)

Contact: Christina Boateng,
ChristinaBoateng@ucsep.org

Description of Program: The South Philadelphia Prevention Coalition \(SPPC\) is devoted to preventing the abuse of tobacco, alcohol, and other drugs in Philadelphia. The coalition is always looking to add students who are interested in making a difference in the community! Students involved with the coalition can be expected to spend about two hours per month supporting the goals of SPPC.

Drexel University Rising Starters

RISING
STARTERS

Contact: Roger Lee (rll62@drexel.edu)

Website: <https://drexel.edu/close/academics/pre-college/rising-starters/>

Description of Program: Drexel University's Charles D. Close School of Entrepreneurship is challenging high school students to reach for new heights, develop an idea for a business (profit or not for profit), then pitch to a panel of judges. Each high school will select a representative (individual or group) to compete in this virtual competition. Throughout competition preparation and execution, students will gain skills such as recognizing needs, developing opportunities and moving ideas forward – all crucial skills that students can apply to any field they pursue. Students can win up to a $2,500 cash prize in a final competition

Villanova University Power Forward

Contact: Dr. Pritpal (“Pali”) Singh (pritpal.singh@villanova.edu)

Website: <https://www1.villanova.edu/villanova/engineering/experiential-learning/stem-outreach/power-forward.html>

Description of Program: In partnership with the Philadelphia School District, high school students will be empowered to become agents of change in their communities by participating in a leadership development program that includes educational institutions (their high schools and Villanova University), local organizations and key community stakeholders. The goal is to see a statistically significant increase in the percentage of parents and students interested in switching to renewable energy sources after participating in workshops and the project curriculum. Additionally, participation may lead these students and their parents to consider careers in renewable energy.

Bridges to Wealth (University of Pennsylvania)

Contact: Daniela Nemirovsky (dnemo@wharton.upenn.edu)
